Our Conference Space: Austin's Central Library

Continuing our theme of exploring Austin like a local, we will be holding our educational sessions at Austin's newly built library - an architectural gem to the ever-changing impressive Austin skyline. Just steps away from the vibrant 2nd Street District and accessible hiking/biking trails, the Central Library offers stunning views overlooking Lady Bird Lake. A unique opportunity to spend time in this modern masterpiece - all while learning about relevant topics in the ever-evolving energy credit and risk industry. It is approximately 3 blocks from our hotel.

March 6, Education Sessions

Location: Austin's Central Library

8:00 am	BREAKFAST &amp; REGISTRATION CHECK-IN – Austin's Central Library
9:00 am	Opportunities and Risks in the EMERGING ENERGY STORAGE MARKET [60 minute session] Energy storage has received considerable attention as battery costs have declined and as many parts of the country look to a future with ever greater penetration of intermittent renewable generation. John Hejkal will discuss the prospects and risks for energy storage across different sectors as market and regulatory conditions continue to evolve. Speaker: John Hejkal, Tenaska, Inc
10:00 am	BREAK
10:15 am	Stay What?!! ISDA STAY PROTOCOL [60 minute session] Many market participants have received requests from their counterparties to amend (bilaterally or through the use of an ISDA Protocol) various types of trading agreements to address special resolution regimes in the United States and abroad. This session will put these requests in context; we will walk through the typical amendments requested, the legal and regulatory requirements that necessitate such amendments, and their practical effects. Speaker: Ray Ramirez, Eversheds Sutherland
11:15 am	COLLABORATIVE WORKING GROUP SESSION: THE ISDA MASTER AGREEMENT Attend this interactive session where participants will be given the opportunity to learn more about the ISDA Master Agreement from both our industry experts and from collaborative learning with other attendees. Industry Experts: Craig Enochs, Reed Smith; Mark Holler, Tenaska Power Services; Ginger Price, Energy Contract Management [The ISDA is a copyrighted document, please be prepared to bring your own copy of the ISDA.]
12:00 pm	LUNCH
1:00 pm	COLLABORATIVE WORKING GROUP SESSION: THE ISDA MASTER AGREEMENT [180 minute session] Continued from the morning, groups will reconvene to continue working on the negotiated language.
3:00 pm	BREAK
3:15 pm	NAPCO BUSINESS MEETING We encourage all attendees to participate at this meeting as part of ongoing discussions of the future of the organization.
3:30 pm	SUPPLY CHAIN CREDIT RISK: Understanding a Complex Process [60 minute session] Global supply chains have become increasingly complex, and supply chain risk management is a major issue for most corporations. Evaluating supplier risk can be a complex process because of the vast types of risk. This session will focus on understanding the financial risks in your supply chain and how you can mitigate these risks. Speaker: Julian Edgar, Rapid Ratings
7:00 pm	GROUP NETWORKING DINNER @ COOPER'S OLD TIME BBQ PIT When you think Texas, you think BBQ! A fun evening, networking with your colleagues....and the bonus: we are right on Congress street, close to so many fun restaurants and bars!
